

CSS UVC Cap Treatment

Prevention within your HACCP procedures

CSS UVC Cap Treatment units have been developed for Induflex Cap Feeding systems and could be used with little effort within your cap tracks as well.

Without affecting the performance of the cap feeding system a kill rate can be already achieved by means of a short exposure time. Requests for individual solutions are welcome.

Unit with open cover

CSS UVC Cap Treatment

Technical Data:

Yeast reducing of screw caps before application

Two cap tracks per unit

*dimensions approx. 600*400*450 mm*

For use with Induflex Cap feeding systems

(Individual change to feeding systems of other suppliers optional)

For Induflex
Cap feeding systems